The owner of the dog has been previously taken to court, but this is the first official report of the dog biting someone. Mr. Bills recently plowed back some of the snow banks along the roadsides in Town prior to last weekend's heavy rainfall. The Town didn't seem to experience as much flooding and damage as other towns in the area. Ron Bell, the person who designed the blueprint for the salt/sand shed project, has agreed to attend the pre-bid meeting when the project is put out to bid, to answer any potential questions that may arise.

Road/Bridge Weight Limit Policy
